NATIONAL RELEASE DATE
SEPTEMBER 6, 2005

On September 6th, MARAT, the hard rock super group made up of southern musical vets from Snatches of Pink, Dillon Fence, The Veldt and What Peggy Wants, will release a new album simply titled, AGAIN. Produced by John Agnello whose long list of production credits include Dinosaur Jr., Jay Farrar, Alice Cooper, The Screaming Trees, Jimmy Eat World, Lemonheads, Firehose, Tad and the Breeders, AGAIN is aptly titled as the follow up to their first record, MARAT. This collective group of musicians have done time in some of the best bands to come out of the southeast blending very different backgrounds and sounds but finding common ground with the overlapped influences of Aerosmith, Zeppelin and Alice Cooper. With guttural rock comparisons to early Cult, MARAT'S AGAIN delivers guitar-drenched music accompanied by lyrics sung with utter conviction to produce a sound big and loud enough to fill a stadium.

".....sounds like Mick Jagger fronting a pissed off Smithereens. Sounds cool huh? Well, it is. John Ensslin can sing like Jagger used to 'cause he's got the spunk that Jagger lost years ago. The only way I know how to describe it is Tom Verlaine meets Jack White with flashes of Jagger in the mix. The band is tight and rocks with the best of them..." Review by J.R. Oliver

"Fronted by Michael Rank's muscular guitar and John Ensslin's bratty sneer, Marat puts enough lipstick onto its grimy face to give a perfectly snotty edge. For Marat, grit + glam = good times..." - Michael Toland / HIGH BIAS
